Albuquerque at Tucson.
Phoenix at Las Cruces.
El Paso at Douglas.

Field Manager Frank Huelsman led the Dukes in their first engagement on foreign soil this afternoon. Host Reed was kept here until last night by club business and will not get into Tucson until tomorrow.

Reed's absence from the firing line shouldn't make any difference in the fortunes of the expeditionary force. Huelsman was hired to run the team, and a keener playing manager isn't in sight anywhere in the league. As a baseball strategist, he has brains and has been in total extinction. This is Huelsman's eighteenth year in the game, and he knows the answer to every play or situation that the opposition springs.

LINING 'EM OUT

In the light of Albuquerque batting averages El Paso's demand that the Dukes be trimmed, pruned or otherwise mutilated seems reasonable enough.

Having heard rumors of the Furero Albuquerque, John McGraw has quit repining over Benny Kauff. Dick Kinsella has packed his grip, stuck a ticket to the southwest nest in his pocket and is on his way. He is heading this way disguised as a snail salesman from Auburn, N. Y.

Charles Murphy ran a shoestring into a million, but it took him years to do it. Eagle-eyed young men in distant points of Rio Grande circuit seized on Albuquerque shoestring and ran it into a million in less than two weeks.

El Paso government wants it understood that it joins with Germany in refusing to guarantee safety of neutrals found in war zone on enemy vessels. All millionaires are warned not to take passage on fast lines. Duke City, special arrangements having been made to have her scuttled in the southern war zone.

Longhorn baseball writer says it will be a hard job for Sec. Harris to make his Duval payroll tide up only $1,200 a month. Not half as hard, little one, as the job business Manager Tom Hughes will have to dig up $1,200 each and every month for the payroll.

REHEARING IN BANK'S CASE AGAINST STOVER

In the case of the First National bank against Frederick Stover the supreme court has set aside Judge Mechem's finding for the defendant and will rehear the case. A. B. McMillin is chief counsel for the bank and Marron and Wood are counsel for the defendant.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all drug stores.

Phoenix Gazette.

Brown, Phoenix's utility man who made such a good showing while playing in Pittman's place in center field during the games with Tucson, is also a pitcher. Chances are he'll be seen on the mound some day.

Douglas Dispatch.

Baseball enthusiasm is rapidly growing here, despite the fact that the local team has started out by running into a bunch of hard luck. Local fans are remembering that the team has only been assembled as a whole for three days and that the men cannot be expected to play well together until they have had some practice. The games they are playing the first two weeks cannot be considered as anything more than practice ones.

"I went down to the Bass Ball Game the other day and got more intram in the Solium Phans in the Grand Staircase I was in the Plaza. They were son Feller which forgot he was in Phoenix and when a ball was knocked over the fence he stood up and waved his hat and yelled, 'Set Down, set the Feller nearby: You're Dumb!' the Gaim. The Runner can't hear what the Coach is trying to tell him. You must a been Raised in a Bitter Factory, to make such a Bitter of this!"

"They're some kind of Dope which is called Pep at they shoots into the Player to make him play more Feecier. Bass Ball won't never be a Complete Success in Phoenix till they bring in a Bar of this here Pep and Vaseline Everybody in the Grand Stand with it."

El Paso Herald.

If the Albuquerque players are getting the same salaries in the Duke City as they received in other organizations it will be a difficult job for Secretary Harris to make the payroll total up only $1,200. But perhaps the heavy hitters play for Reed just for the love of it. Yes, perhaps.

HAS FULL POWER TO COLLECT BUSINESS TAX

City Clerk Thomas Hughes today took oath as a deputy county assessor. Assessor Heyn having signed his commission. The appointment of Mr. Hughes as a deputy assessor confers on him full power to compel payment of delinquent occupation taxes. Under the law he is authorized to bring suit against delinquents.

ALDERMAN POINTS OUT WAY TO GET POLICEWOMAN

Simple Matter of Providing Her Salary Will Sweep Away All Difficulties; City Attorney Prods Heyn.

How the feminist and welfare workers can bring about the appointment of a policewoman was indicated by Alderman J. A. Skinner, chairman of the ordinance committee, at last night's council meeting. A petition had been read asking for the appointment of a woman officer.

"If," said Alderman Skinner, "they'll pay her, it will be all right." Chairman George C. Scheer, of the police committee, couldn't see any other way to provide for a policewoman. City Attorney Heyn at once gave an ebb for an additional police salary.

"If we put on a woman," he said, "we'll have to take off a man."

"We don't want a woman on the force, anyhow," said Alderman Steve Chen. The petition was turned over to the police committee.

Under suspension of rules an ordinance was passed requiring trolley cars to stop when a fire engine answering an alarm approaches. The motorman is liable to a fine up to $50 for violation of the ordinance.

The ordinance requiring automobile lights to use dimmers on their headlights in town was passed on second reading. Alderman Skinner voted against it. He said he had heard many protests against it. The chief objections, he said, were that it would make many car owners to expense and make the lights too feeble. Auto owners will have an opportunity to register protests with the council when the ordinance comes up for third reading at the next meeting.

Mandamus proceedings will not be necessary to make County Assessor Fred Heyn go after the occupation tax in town. Heyn consented, after a visit from City Attorney T. N. Wilkerson, according to the latter's report last night, to appoint City Clerk Thomas Hughes a deputy. The appointment will give Mr. Hughes all the authority he needs to collect the tax.

Chief of Police McMillin reported that he had taken up with George Rosington, the traction company receiver, the subject of long waits by cars at the junction point at Second street and Central avenue. Cars, it was stated, frequently stood at the corner, the busiest in the city, for several minutes, interfering with the flow of traffic to an appreciable extent.

The Petition for Policewoman.

The text of the petition for appointment of a policewoman follows:

May 17, 1915.

Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council.

Gentlemen: After careful investigation and due consideration we see and feel the immediate need of a policewoman in Albuquerque.

Therefore, we the undersigned respectfully petition your honorable body to add to your present police force a woman with full police power.

ST. ANTHONY'S HAS ROOM FOR FOUR UNFORTUNATES

Capacity of Orphanage Taxed to Limit to Take Care of Children of Consolation Garcia, Left Helpless.

With its capacity and means taxed to the utmost in caring for the 82 orphan children already accepted at the institution, St. Anthony's orphanage this morning stretched its arms to limit a little bit further to provide at least a temporary home for the four unfortunate little children of Consolation Garcia, whose riotous career has left the mother in the county jail and the children with no one to care for them. Their father, it is understood, is at a sheep camp in western Socorro county.

Consolation Garcia, a character with a long record of minor offenses, recently was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail by Judge Craig. Because of the four small children on appeal was taken in her behalf to Judge Reynolds' court, where decision was affirmed. In the meantime the police again had been forced to arrest the woman for drunkenness. The four little children were left without food and with an indifferent shelter.

St. Anthony's was appealed to and created room for the little ones where room did not exist. The orphanage, which is now caring for 82 children, practically all of them strict charity cases, can only care for these four children for a little time and help for them is seriously needed.

The help volunteered by St. Anthony's in this particularly ugly case is a striking illustration of the splendid work the institution is doing. Dependent almost entirely upon the contributions of the benefactor for maintenance, the good Sisters have managed to provide food and clothing for a literal host of little ones, and are giving them the foundations of an education. The new law permitting counties to pay for maintenance of dependent children is beginning to help the institution a very little, but it needs and needs immediate and general assistance and backing. It is doing a splendid work for New Mexico.

FEE SUES NEW YORK LIFE FOR $175

R. W. Fee, well known agent, filed suit today in Justice's court for $175 against the New York Life Insurance company. Plaintiff alleges failure to pay amount held due on surrender value of a life insurance policy issued to him by the company.

Thomas Jefferson "Father of the Declaration of Independence"

THIS noble founder of the Democratic Party immortalized himself by writing our Declaration of Independence—the document which laid the foundations of Free Government, not only for our own beloved land, but for all the world. His countrymen twice elected him President and will always treasure his memory. Jefferson was the most ardent advocate of Universal Freedom of his time and it was his wisdom and foresight which brought about the Louisiana Purchase. Every drop of his Virginia blood loved Liberty, and because he wanted Americans to be assured of it for all time he championed with all his might and main the signing of the Constitution of the United States. None of the fathers of the Republic were more far-seeing than he and none knew better than he that a mild brew of barley-malt and hops is truly a temperance drink. Hence, in 1816, he wrote President Madison: "A Captain Miller is about to settle in this country and establish a brewery. I wish to see this beverage become common." Jefferson lived past his 83rd year and all his life he was a moderate user of light wines and barley brews. It is unimaginable that were he alive to-day he would vote otherwise than NO to proposed tyrannous prohibition laws. For 58 years Anheuser-Busch have been brewing the kind of honest barley and hop brews which Jefferson hoped in his day to see the National beverage of Americans. Exactly such a beer is BUDWEISER, its quality, purity, mildness and exquisite flavor have won its way to the top. To-day 7500 people are daily required to meet the public demand. Its sales exceed any other beer by millions of bottles.
